MRS. MAXWELL.

MRS. WRIGHT.

The Senior Class gratefully dedicates Triumph '78 to these five fine individuals.
Through our years at Tamarac they have aided and encouraged us in many ways.
With their own special

talents they have helped us
to realize the best in ourselves, and have opened our minds to bigger and brighter things.

For this and much more we are in their debt. Thank You.

MR. CARNEVALE,
MR. SENECA, AND MR. CLAUS

*Good Morning
Yesterday —
You wake up and time
Has slipped away,*

*And suddenly
It's hard to find,
The memories
We've left behind —*

*Remember?
Do you remember?
The laughter
And the tears,*

When I Must Leave You

When I must leave you
for a little while —
Please do not grieve
and shed wild tears
And hug your sorrow to you
through the years,
But start out bravely,
with a gallant smile;
And for my sake
and in my name
Live on and do
all things the same,

Feed not your loneliness
on empty days,
But fill each waking hour
in useful ways,
Reach out your hand
in comfort and in cheer
And I in turn will comfort you
and hold you near;
And never, never
be afraid to die,
For I am waiting for you in the sky.

When I run out of breath, I stop and sit on a rock and wonder whether to stay and fight or follow the flight of the hawk. Most of the time, I stumble thru the clawing brush; tripping upon a daisy, lazy in my rush. I'm looking for a tree to climb closer to the sun. The nearest branches are too high; I think I'll need a stepping stand."

Reflections

The Class of '78 entered good 'ol THS as a wild bunch of freshmen who were almost more than the faculty could handle. Unaccustomed to having so much freedom, we temporarily "lost" our good behavior and for awhile it didn't seem like we would ever get it back. Many of our teachers began showing their first grey hairs at this time — we even helped drive Mr. Celeste to the priesthood. When we weren't tacking frogs up in Miss Jackson's room, we took time to relax in the Student Lounge. Our show that year, "Fiddler On The Roof," was still a success even though no one from our class held a major role. Finally we bid farewell to the Senior Class thinking ourselves completely used to the "ins" and "outs" of high school life.

But it was not to be. As sophomores we found ourselves even more confused: our lounge disappeared, gates were put up, open classrooms suddenly had doors, and the halls were being patrolled by an ominous sounding Director of Discipline in the guise of Mr. "Mac." Tensions ran high that year but we weathered the storm.

On the bright side, our basketball team finished in a three-way tie for first place in the Washington County League. Our Music Department feature that year was "Guys and Dolls" which entertained to a capacity crowd (as always).

The chaotic beginning of our Junior year attracted the attention of the entire Capitol District. Singled out by two newspapers and three television stations, we were affectionately called the "HUNS." We tried to settle down for classes and began the long ordeal of suffering through Mr. Senecal's jokes. He did manage to get us through the first two events of the year, the magazine sales drive and the ring dinner; less than spectacular and a success in that order!

Reflections

This was our year to wear out Chemistry teachers. Unfortunately, Mrs. Pratt became ill shortly before Christmas vacation. In the succeeding eight days we went through three substitutes before Mrs. DiStefano arrived. She was a hardy soul and lasted the remainder of the year.

The culmination of our junior year woes was the resignation of our principal, Mr. Hamer, in February, 1977. He was replaced by our present administrator, Mr. Murray. During the transition, "Mr. Mac" went back to his teaching and Mrs. Aceto left her position in the library to take the Vice-Principalship. She was later replaced by Dr. Scotten.

Highlights of our junior year included our "Answers Please" teams' trophy for three undefeated appearances. The junior-senior prom, "We May Never Pass This Way Again," was a huge success and, if smiles are an indication, a good time was had by all.

And thus we entered our Senior year. It was great for about two weeks, and then the novelty wore off. Things were different this year but our new administrator had things running quite smoothly on the student level. Overjoyed with our football teams winning of the Southern Conference title we failed to see a cancer lurking in the darkness.

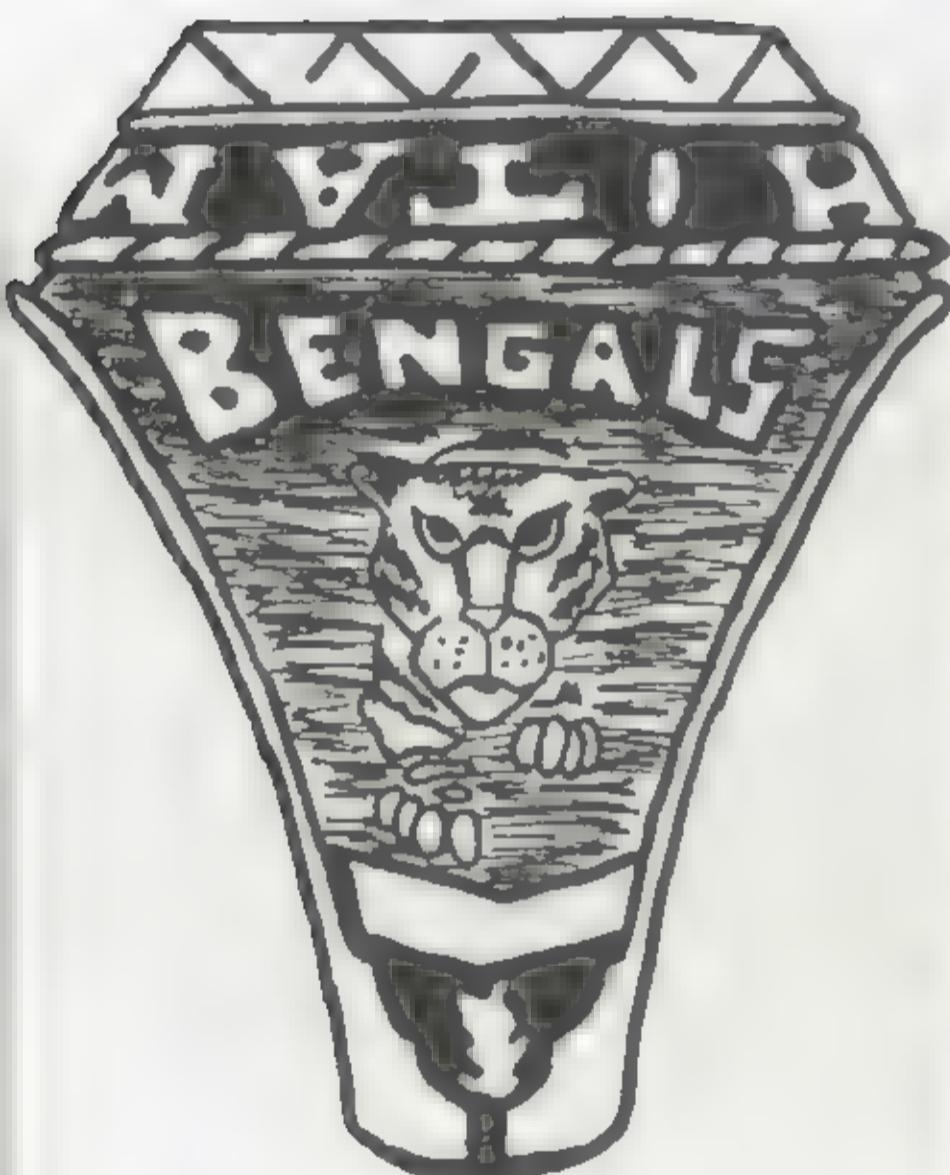

In Mid-November the teachers began Union action in an attempt to settle the deadlocked negotiations between themselves and the Board of Education. Once again we weathered the storm looking forward to that Golden Day in June.

When we leave, I'm sure we'll all remember the masses of red tape, the closed doors, the rarity of supplies, a form for every occasion, and the overwhelming feeling that you're getting no place, but, for a while, we called Tamarac our "home".

Where will we go from here? Nobody really knows. We're sure as far as Tamarac is concerned, our going away will be sufficient. GOOD LUCK to all those who are left.

Varsity Football

On Sept. 23rd, there was a pep rally held honoring the football teams. The Captains and Coach of the Varsity team expressed their feeling of the upcoming season. They believed that if there could ever be a team to bring the Southern Conference Championship back to Tamarac, this was it.

The Tamarac defense was led by Steve Lembo, Bob Wagner, Mike Vellotti, Ed Bornt, Shawn McMahon, John Burton, Matt Gilchrist and Don Trudeau.

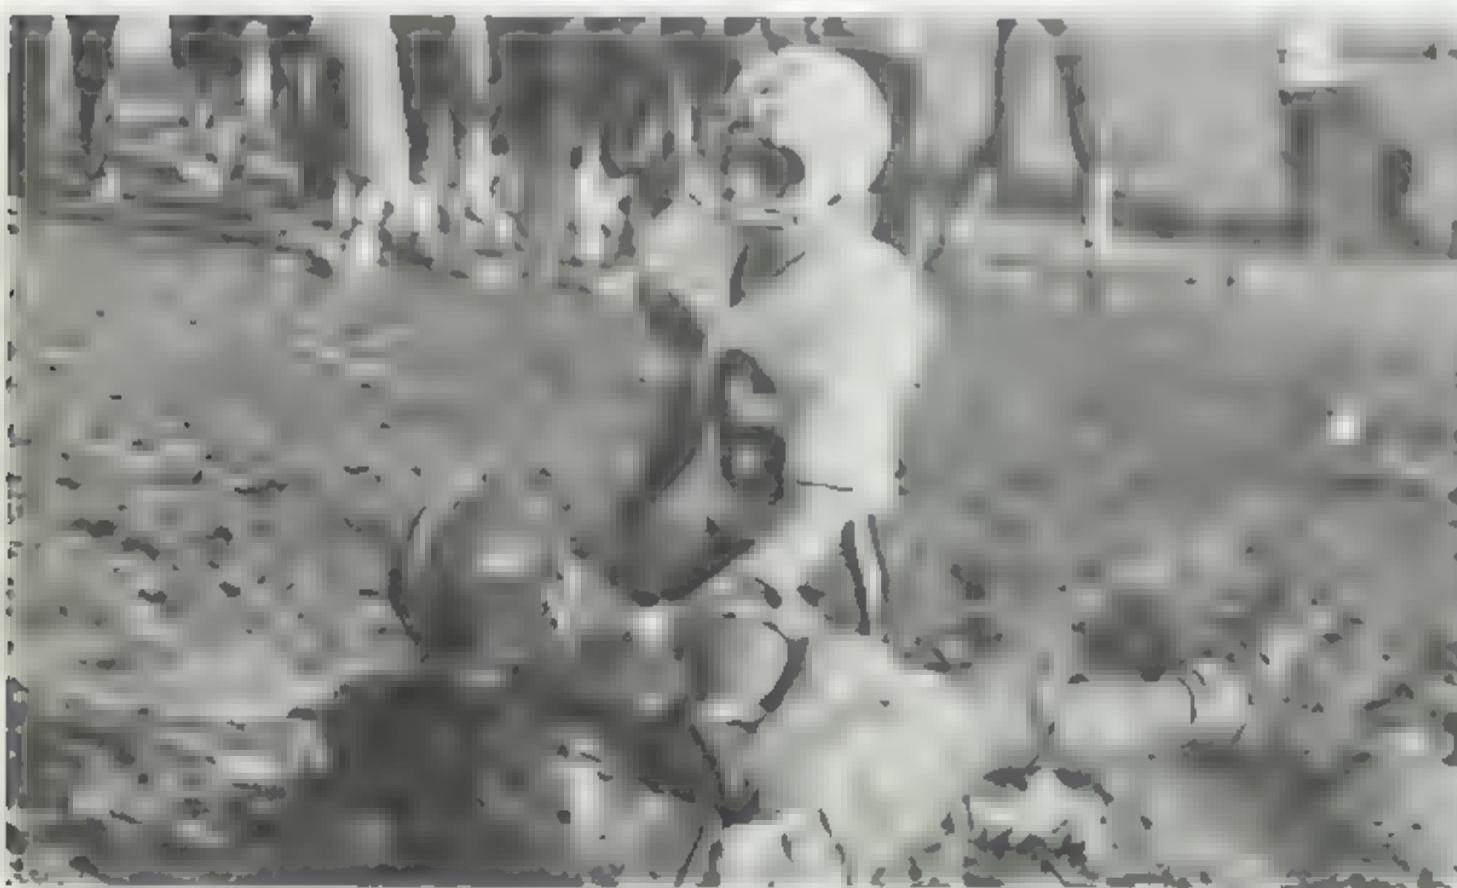

The Bengal offense was directed by quarterback Ed Bornt. The big scorers for the team were Bob Wagner with 56 points and Jim McLoughlin with 48 points. Bob Wagner, Jim McLoughlin and John Burton were leading rushers. As receivers, Jim Gagnon and John Burton gained the most yards.

In his 3rd year of coaching Varsity Football at Tamarac, Vince Carnevale was recognized as Coach of the Year.

Tamarac High School commends the team and their Coach for an outstanding '77 season.

We Would Like to Express Our Gratitude to . . .

Kati, Mel, and Sue — for their persistence with the prelude and postlude

Bill, Cathy, and Joanne — for their finesse with the faculty

Mrs. Donna, Wendy, and Debby — for their success with the Seniors

Kathy, Sharon, Debbie, and [unintelligible] — for their undying effort with the underclass

Donna, Carrie, and Michelle — for their concise control over the clubs

Mrs. Rose, Shane, Lisa, and Renee — for their stamina with the sports.

Gerry, [unintelligible], and John — for their patience with the patrons

Dave and [unintelligible] — for their assets and ambition with the ads

Dense, Cathy, Robin, Tammy, and Cindi — for tip toeing thru the typing

Carrie and Chuck — for their "works of art"

Jeff, Bob, Tim, Brian, Rich, and Bob — phenomenal photography

Jeff and Liz — without whom our work would have been much more difficult

And certainly, to Mr. Backhaus, whose time and effort have immensely contributed to the outstanding success of TRIUMPH '78

P.S.

And now before the last pages turn, we would like to make a few final notes. At the top of the list goes a hearty thanks to our Taylor Publishing Company Representative, Jim Simmonds, whose services were indispensable throughout the year. Second, a long overdue thanks to all the folks down at Lloyd's Studio who were always there when you needed them most. Also to the library staff — Mrs. Bursik, Mrs. Rist and Mrs. Emerson — who aided us in "the pinch" many, many times.

And finally, many thanks to the ad and patron recruiters, contributing photographers, staff members, the faculty, Guidance Department, and especially the administration for their patience. It's been a great year!

Paul Smith and Mike Recker

As we look back over the years, our most cherished memories come to mind and brighten up
our days.

Now we must look
ahead, into the future,
to new adventures
awaiting us in years
yet to come.
